

Dear friends,

Since sending out our newsletter yesterday, the Blue Wave Postcard Movement has distributed all of their postcard kits. Please consider this alternative postcard project with Reclaim our Vote and the Center for Common Ground. But you'll need to act quickly! Here are the details:

The Colorado Reclaim Our Vote Team is writing to black voters in GA with the key information they need to participate in the runoff election and encouraging them to vote. They are working with the Center for Common Ground, a national organization led by black, Indigenous, Latine, Asian and other too-often-marginalized people that focuses on turning out infrequent voters of color in Southern states.

If you are able to join this effort, please fill out this simple google form to help them plan for the VERY QUICK turnaround for this two-week campaign. (If you cannot fill out the form, just email\_patty@centerforcommonground.org and let her know how many cards you are able to write by Nov. 23.)

Thank you!
